Request for permission for one-time use of copyrighted photographs...

My client, _____, has commissioned Milestone Images; Algona, Iowa; to design a photo montage image using a variety of photographs included in their personal/business collection of photographs. Although most of the images are personal snapshots being used, their collection includes _____ photograph/s created by your studio and, therefore, their use is subject to your copyright ownership.

To successfully complete this project, I need permission for one-time use of those images that they chose you/your studio to create. The photographs will be integrated into a montage image, a single photographic image comprised of many photographs seamlessly blended to depict a person's life or tell a story. The montage is being designed to celebrate the following occasion: _____. No individual copies will be made of your copyrighted material and the scanned digital images/files will not be made available for any other use.
